Pastor's Letter

Grace, Mercy, and Peace to you and your family from our Creator, our Savior Jesus Christ, and our Sustainer, the Holy Spirit!!

September begins our intentional discernment journey of 'Listening Together.' This collective journey will guide us as a church to what God is calling us too next.

As we begin this journey together, it is valuable to discover our spiritual gifts. Spiritual gifts are biblical, given to everyone, essential to discipleship, and exciting to discover and reveal. We know through scripture that we all have gifts through the Spirit.

1st Corinthians 12: ⁴Now there are varieties of gifts but the same Spirit, ⁵and there are varieties of services but the same Lord, ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. ⁷To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

God has given each of us useful gifts, as we are part of the Body of Christ. These spiritual gifts are special abilities, talents, or capacities given to us by the Holy Spirit for the purpose of loving God, others, and creation. They are gifts that come naturally to us and bring us joy and life. Some enjoy reading, others organizing. Some folks like to work behind the scenes, while others prefer hospitality. I would like to offer a tool to help us recognize our spiritual gifts. To help us better recognize our gifts and talents, I invite you to visit this website, Gifts for You: Opening Your Spiritual Gifts for a Spiritual Gifts Assessment. The assessment is found on pages 10-15 of the document.

On September 15th, OSLC will hold a Ministry Team 'Open House' during our Fellowship hour after the 9:00 am worship service in the Fellowship Hall. What is a ministry team 'Open House?' I'm glad you asked. Each Ministry Team will have time and space to explain their role and responsibilities in our ministry together at OSLC. We hope this will be an invitation for you to connect your gifts and talents (the gifts and talents that give you life) to the communities of OSLC and PLM. By taking some time and completing the Spiritual Gifts inventory, you will discover the gifts God has blessed you so that you can continue in God's call individually and collectively for OSLC. We hope you will join us in this fun and exciting time together.

Peace,

Pastor Randy

Ministry Team Open House-Sunday, Sept. 15th

As we approach our annual fall stewardship campaign, we will once again be inviting all members of OSLC to pledge their financial support for the coming year. This year, we're also placing a special emphasis on encouraging members to volunteer their time and talents by joining one of our many ministry teams. To give everyone a better understanding of the vital work these teams do, your Church Council has organized a special Ministry Team Open House during the Adult Forum hour on Sunday, Sept. 15th. Each ministry team chair or representative will present a brief 2-3 minute "elevator speech" to highlight their team's contributions to the life of our congregation. This is a fantastic opportunity to learn more about the different ways you can get involved and make a meaningful impact in the life of OSLC. Plus, there will be a bit of friendly competition to see which team can attract the most new members! Please mark your calendars and plan to attend this informative and inspiring event. We look forward to seeing you there!

Council Highlights

- Faith Formation: Ministry Fair: There will be volunteers sitting at the table and talking with people. Missy will have information about Faith Formation and pictures to share. Holly Black is reigniting the Book Club and Hearts & Crafts this fall. The Women's Retreat will be September 21st and will be lead by Missy Schroeder and Suzanne Clemenz, who is the pastor at Trinity UMC and a fellow Spiritual Director.
- Social Justice: Working on school kits and line items for the budget.
- Stewardship: Carl Behnke is putting together a Stewardship pamphlet for the stewardship package to go out with the pledge cards. Stewardship campaign will be held in Sept. and Oct.

Stewardship

You are amazing! Truly amazing!

Because of your generous gifts of time, talents, and treasures,
OSLC and PLM continue in God's call and ministry.

OSLC Members: The Stewardship Team is currently working on the information for the Stewardship packages. These packages will include the proposed 2023 budget, a 'Time and Talents' form, a stewardship prayer, and an invitation to prayerfully discern your financial contribution to support God's mission through OSLC in 2025. Stewardship packages will be available to pick up at church on Sunday, September 29th during service hours. If you are not available to pick them up, we will mail out what remains on September 30th. Pledge (Commitment) Sunday, when we invite you to return those pledges, will be Sunday October 20th. You may place them in the offering plate that Sunday or mail them using the included envelope.

Ministry Team Chairs/ Teams: Remember to discuss your annual budget requests and send them to Steve Belter for budget planning by September 10th. During September and October, the Financial Team will need those requests as the stewardship process begins to budget for 2025. Current Ministry Teams include Property, Worship & Music, Faith Formation, Operations, Social Justice, Mutual Ministry, Care, and Fellowship Events. If you coordinate specific ministries, such as LUM, Family Promise, or Food Finders and wish to include gifts as separate budget lines, please request the gift amount for consideration.

Thank you for all you do, your continued support of loving and serving God and neighbor. You are appreciated and loved. You are a child of God, deserving of love and respect and God will use you to change the world!

Peace,

Pastor Randy

Faith Formation September News

As we transition into the new routines of school, fall activities, and the bustling life at OSLC, I find myself reflecting on the words of Jerome Berryman, the founder of Godly Play: “We have all the time we need.” While I may not always feel this way amidst the busy pace, it’s a reminder to embrace and explore.

I believe God doesn’t want us to be driven by obligation, societal expectations, or external pressures. Instead, God calls us to be drawn toward life, light, and love. In John 10:10, Jesus says, “The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

As the Faith Formation Director, my prayer is that we provide opportunities that infuse our community with life, meaning, and joy. I encourage you to find what nourishes and helps you experience this abundant life. As you navigate this new season, consider how God invites you to embrace a fuller, richer existence. Whether you engage in activities at OSLC, explore other community opportunities, or simply take time to rest, I hope you encounter the boundless life and love that God generously offers to us all.

Happy Fall!!

Listening Together: OSLC's Discernment Journey facilitated by Missy Schroeder

In September 2023, OSLC embarked on a spiritual journey to discern God's invitation for our community's future. This discernment process began with three retreats involving both our church council and congregation. Together, we reflected with honesty and love on our past, our present identity, and the Spirit's guidance for our future.

As we continue this journey, our focus is on understanding what God is calling us to do next. Over the next six months, I am honored to guide you through this discernment process, which is distinct from decision-making or strategic planning. In the Adult Forum this September, we will delve deeper into the differences between discernment and decision-making. Our goal during this period is to deepen our understanding of discernment and practice listening attentively to God, each other, and our community.

Many of you know me from my role as the Faith Formation Director at OSLC, a role I deeply cherish. My broader experience also prepares me uniquely for this journey:

- Spiritual Director
- ELCA Accredited Coach
- Professional training in Discernment, Deep Listening, Spiritual and Congregational Transformation, Missional Development, Discipleship, Leadership, and End-of-Life and Grief
- Assistant Director of the Indiana-Kentucky Synods' transformational ministry process, Ecumenical Connect (E-Connect)

Our discernment process will include the following key components:

1. Spiritual Practices. We will engage in prayer and practices designed to help us listen to God both individually and as a community. Our approach will remain centered on openness to God's leading throughout our discernment.
2. Grounding. We will explore OSLC's current identity through a congregational values exercise I will lead in October. This builds on our previous work in the "Honoring the Past, Experiencing the Present, and Discerning the Future" retreats. The insights from these retreats will inform our ongoing process. Additionally, the church council will participate in a retreat early next year to further discern OSLC's purpose and guiding principles.
3. Listening. Our process starts with prayer and attentive listening to the Spirit. We will continue by engaging in community conversations and listening to feedback from the congregation.
4. Exploring. As we stay grounded and listen deeply, the council will explore and evaluate options that arise from our discernment. Together, we will develop goals and plans aligned with where the Spirit is leading us.

You will have multiple opportunities to participate in this journey and in prayer as we seek to understand where God is inviting OSLC. Please check the bulletin and Evangel for upcoming times and dates. I look forward to embarking on this journey with you. For any questions, feel free to contact me at missy@osluth.org, Council President Bob Nielsen at cornuguy.rln@gmail.com, or Pastor Randy at randy@osluth.org.

Preparation for Worship

“Lord ... whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe: be there at our labors, and give us, we pray, your strength in our hearts.” (“Lord of All Hopefulness,” Jan Struther)

* * *

Isaiah declares: “Say to those who are of a fearful heart, ‘Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God’” (35:4, NRSV). May we sense your nearness, Lord, so our anxieties may be stilled.

* * *

God, some of my friends think I’m foolish to spend time at church. Remind me I’m not alone — it has always been so for Christians — but in Christ’s cross is your saving power. Amen. (See 1 Corinthians 1:18.)

* * *

“Hear my prayer, O God; listen to the words of my mouth. ... I will praise your name, Lord, for it is good” (Psalm 54:2, 6, NIV).

* * *

Lord, the psalmist says your law revives the soul and rejoices the heart (Psalm 19:7-8). Feed and water my heart with your good law today, that I may flourish with love for you and all people. Amen.

Words of Welcome

Welcome to worship this Labor Day weekend. May God be in our work and our leisure, our fellowship and our praise.

* * *

What a glorious day as we return to [or share in] a full program schedule! Welcome [back] to worship, Christian education and fellowship today!

* * *

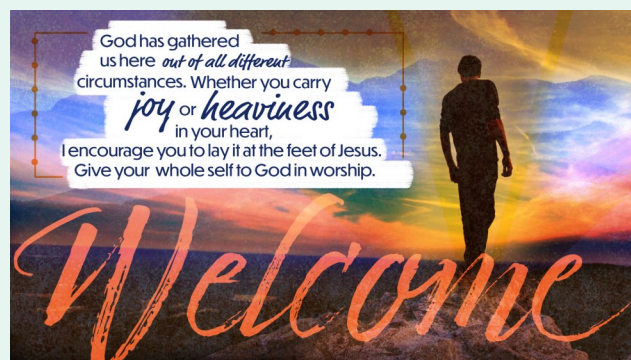

God told Moses to raise a bronze serpent on a pole so people who were sick could look at it and be healed (Numbers 21:4-9). Likewise, we look to Christ, raised up on a cross, and our souls are healed. Welcome to worship.

* * *

Welcome to worship in the name of God — Father, Son and Holy Spirit — who created you, saved you and makes you holy. Amen.

* * *

God has gathered us here out of all different circumstances. Whether you carry joy or heaviness in your heart, I encourage you to lay it at the feet of Jesus. Give your whole self to God in worship. Welcome.
